

If I had any advice for mothers it would be to "Be There." Being There isn't about money or even about staying home full-time. It's about crouching on the floor and getting delirious over the praying mantis your son just caught instead of perusing an email or filling the dishwasher while he is yelling for your attention and you distractedly say over your shoulder: "Oh , honey, isn't that a pretty bug." It's about being attuned enough to notice when your kid's eyes shine so you can make your eyes shine back.
