Here are some possible questions to get you started on some great conversations while you’re waiting in line with your children. Print this page, add some ideas of your own, fold it up into your backpack, and when there’s a lull, pull it out and start chatting!

• What are your favorite things?
• What are you most afraid of?
• Where would you most like to travel?
• If you could be any Disney character, who would you want to be?
• How many children do you want to have?
• Do you know where you want to work when you get older?
• Do you want to start a business?
• Are there any hobbies you’d like to pick up?
• Is there anything you’re really excited about right now?
• Who are your best friends?
• Who would you want to meet, if you could meet anyone in the world?
• What do you know about politics?
• What do you know about religion?
• What can I do better as a parent?
• How can I make your home life better?
• What skills would you like to develop?
