

Family Fun Jar Brainstorming Sheet

Circle the ideas below that most people are excited about and add your own ideas. When you're done brainstorming, have every family member write their top one or two choices on a slip of paper. Then come up with the 10 final activities that will go in the jar.

Cheap or free:

Go to a favorite or new park to play

Hike or walk in a beautiful place

Go camping

Go on a bike ride (to a fun destination, maybe including a picnic or treats)

Hold an at-home movie night with popcorn and candy

Have a game night or a dance party

Watch old family videos/look at photo albums

Learn to cook something new together

Invite a special guest for dinner who can teach you something interesting

Cost some money:

Roller skating or ice skating

Bounce place/indoor trampoline park

Swimming or water park

Bowling or Miniature Golf

Museum or historic place

Zoo or nature preserve
